Sri K.S.Hegde is a leading lawyer of status at Mangalore. Considering the nature of work and the distance from Mangalore to Bangalore. I submit that the special and additional fees of Rs.250/- addition to the Travelling allowance, claimed by Sri K.S.Hegde, for cross examining the witnesses at Bangalore is reasonable.

Yours faithfully,

For Collector.

Hegde

Sri Hedge, an Advocate in Mangalore was deputed to proceed to Bangalore to cross-examine some witnesses in connection with an O.P. filed in the District Court, Mangalore, for setting aside an order of the H.R.E. Board declaring Sri Manjunatha temple Dharmasthala as a notified one under Madras Act II of 1927. He claimed a fee of Rs.250/- for the work done. As the fee claimed was considered excessive, it was proposed to issue orders in the matter in consultation with the Collector of Mangalore. The Collector considers the fee reasonable for the reasons stated in his letter on p. 3 c.f. In the circumstances, the draft order overleaf may be accepted and passed on to Finance.
